

SILVER JUBILEE

Celebrating the past, curating the future:
Expressing gratitude for 25 years

9th & 10th FEBRUARY

The inaugural ceremony was a testament to CSA's journey—a journey marked by resilience, dedication, and unwavering commitment. At Bangalore Central Campus's Main Auditorium, adorned with echoes of joy and inspiration, we embarked on a voyage of reflection and gratitude.

"With great joy and happiness, I am standing in front of you to talk about CSA and its achievements, acknowledging the support of everyone involved and our strategy to sensitize students to social issues and empower them to bring solutions themselves, having been formed through the National Service Scheme (NSS)." - Dr. Victor Paul

CSA's evolution, showcasing its transformative initiatives over the past quarter-century.

Distinguished guests, Smt. Vandita Sharma, graced us with their presence, underscoring the significance of our collective endeavor. The panel of speakers, with their expertise spanning various domains, added depth and perspective to our discussions.

The keynote speakers, luminaries in their own right, lent their wisdom and insight to the discourse, their words a beacon of guidance for the journey ahead. Prof. M V Rajeev Gowda's appreciation, Dr. Fr Jose CC's presidential address, igniting sparks of inspiration in every heart present.

The keynote speakers delved into pressing issues, from transportation to human trafficking, igniting conversations that inspire action and change by PM Nair.

"Representing the contributions of 25 exemplary individuals across five sectors of CSA."

The success stories of CSA's flagship initiatives—the Child Sponsorship Program, Volunteerism, Community Development Projects, Parivarthana and international realtions —painted a vivid picture of empowerment and transformation. Through heartfelt testimonials and anecdotes, the voices of those touched by CSA's outreach echoed across the auditorium, weaving a narrative of hope and resilience

"CSA 25 Years Souvenir was unveiled by esteemed guests, illuminating the path of CSA's impactful journey."

Throughout the event, we witnessed the tales of triumph and resilience that define CSA's impact. From the Child Sponsorship Program, a beacon of hope for underprivileged students, to volunteerism in sectors crucial for societal well-being, each narrative echoed CSA's ethos of service and empowerment.

Fr. Biju Vartikal's closing speech encapsulated CSA's essence—not merely a charitable body but a catalyst for unity and belonging.

As we look ahead, guided by the light of our Silver Jubilee, let us reaffirm our commitment to social welfare and community service. Let us continue to innovate, collaborate, and strive for a more equitable society.

In the end, it is events like these that remind us of the profound impact we can make when we come together in service and solidarity. As we bid adieu to the Silver Jubilee celebrations, let us carry forward the spirit of gratitude, compassion, and unity that define CSA's legacy.

Here's to 25 years of impact, and countless more to come!

The ceremony was graced by the director of CSA, Dr. Victor Paul, as well as Fr. Biju George and esteemed faculty members, whose contributions to CSA's journey were acknowledged with warmth and gratitude. Dr. Victor Paul's felicitation of old staffs of csa was a touching tribute to their dedication.

CSA volunteers from across campuses came together to organize a day of sports and games for children in project areas. Amidst laughter and friendly competition, bonds were forged, and memories were made—testimony to the transformative power of community spirit.

In the crisp morning air, the pulsating beats of Zumba intertwined with the laughter of children from distant project areas. Led by Bharat's guiding steps, their spirits soared, painting the dawn with the vibrant hues of joy, marking a jubilant commencement to CSA's Silver Jubilee celebrations."

SANGAM

A Joyous Confluence of Hearts and Minds

Celebrations marking CSA's Silver Jubilee, Sangam emerged as the radiant event, Uniting all CSA Volunteers from across campuses to unite, both online and offline. True to its name, Sangam embodied the essence of togetherness—a celebration of the tireless dedication and unwavering commitment of every soul who contributed to shaping a better tomorrow for diverse segments of society. The festivities commenced with a poignant inauguration ceremony, graced by the inspiring words of Dr. Father Viju PD, whose heartfelt tribute to the dedication of CSA volunteers resonated deeply with the audience.

The event gained further momentum as Ms. Pavithra Sundar, our esteemed Chief Guest, shared her personal journey and experiences with CSA, infusing the gathering with a renewed sense of purpose and passion. The introduction of cohorts by cohort heads added another layer of excitement, showcasing the diverse avenues through which CSA channels its transformative energy. But the heartbeat of Sangam was truly felt at the carnival, where stalls adorned the landscape, offering a tantalizing array of treasures—from Parivarthana's exquisite products to tantalizing culinary delights representing diverse cuisines. The vibrant atmosphere pulsated with the rhythm of camaraderie as student volunteers immersed themselves in the delights of fellowship.

Amidst the hustle and bustle of the carnival, another spectacle unfolded—the spirited engagement of CSA volunteers from all campus in various sports, adding a dynamic dimension to the event. And as the sun dipped below the horizon, igniting the sky with hues of twilight, the garden street came alive with the electrifying energy of flash mobs, showcasing the collective spirit and creativity of CSA volunteers across campuses.

But amidst the revelry, one performance stood out—the portrayal of life's myriad hues in Drishti play, a reminder of the power of storytelling to stir hearts and minds alike.

As the day drew to a close, hearts brimming with gratitude and memories etched in the sands of time, the valedictory ceremony served as a poignant reflection of CSA's journey—a testament to its enduring legacy of service, solidarity, and transformation.

In the tapestry of CSA's Silver Jubilee, Sangam emerged as a luminous thread, weaving together the voices and visions that define our collective endeavor. As we bid farewell to this unforgettable celebration, let us carry forth the spirit of Sangam—a celebration of unity, diversity, and boundless possibility.

