FEEDBACK ANALYSIS 2020-21

The curriculum development cell (CDC) of the department collects feedback from students, teachers, industry experts and alumni every year to monitor and evaluate its performance quality on curriculum and curriculum related issues. The feedback forms collected will be analyzed and appropriate action will be proposed for improving the quality of the curriculum.

Practices

CDC sends out feedback forms to different stake holders in the month of October-November every year the collected forms are analyzed and major suggestion from each stake holders will be presented and an action taken report will be updated based on the feedback analysis.

Feedback From	Total no.	Satisfied %	Good %	Excellent %
Student (PG)	90	37	43	20
Teachers	30	36	14	60
Student (UG)	30	44	50	6

Suggestions from teachers:

UG

Incorporate more field based and experience-based learning in the curriculum

Introduce more application-oriented electives based on the faculty's expertise

Biological foundations of psychology to be introduced in the first semester

For I/O psychology: motivation theories could be removed, and only applications need to be kept. For consumer behavior, suggestions were made if any activities like market research/ survey could be conducted by students. To add online consumer behavior, however social media impacts have been already included in the syllabus

Faculty mentioned about the need for emphasis on research methods knowledge as well as skills, suggested to make research optional

1. Add more evidence-based practices in Couples and Family therapy
2. More awareness of laws in India related to Mental health Practices
3. Students need to know the implication of lifespan development in counseling practice
4. References need to be updated to latest editions
5. Play practices need to be understood across development

Suggestions from students UG

- 1) Curriculum of skill enhancement papers to be revised, suggested to add life skills
- 2) Need for more electives

Suggestions from students PG

1. Need information about counseling services in a technology driven society
2. More relevant information with regard to psychosocial interventions as a counsellor
3. Overlap of content in certain courses

T-Sse 2

4. Reorganization of certain content

- Dissertation/Internship Repeat 2500
- Overall CIA Repeat =10% of the academic fees payed

Policy for the department

- CIA dates should be announced in the beginning of the semester, the dates of CIAs are scheduled with the assistance of class teacher to avoid any clashes of dates.
- Class teacher will chair a CIA evaluation meeting where the CIA and rubrics will be examined. All teachers teaching the class various courses will present their CIAs and evaluation rubrics in the meeting and the other members will evaluate and approve the rubric.
- Once the CIA is completed, the CIA link on LMS is hidden from the students. After the evaluation the marks are shared with the class teacher. Class teacher will present the marks in the class teacher meeting and get it approved. Once it is approved an intimation will be sent to the subject teachers to publish the marks to the students.
- If a student fails the CIA, they will be intimated by the exam office (SMS) to pay the repeat fees. Repeat CIA should be conducted by the subject teacher within two weeks of publishing of the original CIA marks and marks should be submitted to the class teacher.
- In case of CIA which is a submission or an in class assessment, if the student fails to make the submission or attend college on the day of the assessment, a repeat will be given only under extenuating circumstances.
- The decision to conduct repeat CIA under extenuating circumstances rests with the HOD and COE.
- All repeat CIAs must be conducted before the next CIA or ESE
- There is only one attempt to do the repeat CIA.
- Grievance Redressal : Any grievances with regard to the CIA marks obtained can be registered by the student to the subject teacher in the first instance, however the resolution is found unsatisfactory, it can be taken up by the grievance redressal cell consisting of the Coordinator/ HOD and an external member.
