

11) Seminar based on entrepreneurship: Incline

INC.LINE was a seminar of magnitude that brought together investors and start-ups in the EdTech Industry and allowed them to interact, network and pitch on one extensive platform. The event was a symposium, where various start-ups, investors, education institutes and students converged at one point, something that has never been achieved before in the EdTech start-up arena. The aim was to allow start-ups to pitch to various investors with their breakthrough solutions in order to obtain funding, feedback and advice. In addition to that, various speakers imparted their valuable knowledge and more than 30 deans from all over the country participated. The focus was also on bridging the gap between the creative ideation and their presentation to prospective investors. For this purpose, the B-Plan event was conducted which allows students to showcase their ideas to real time incubators and innovators.

The agendas for the panel discussions were:

- Universities of the past and universities of the future
- Application of AI, deep learning and analytics in education
- Tackling regulatory challenges and corporate demands
- Adopting VR in learning
- Scaling up an EdTech start-up
