About the Program

The expectation for quality research work from faculty in higher education has always been there but with University Grant Commission (UGC) making it a mandatory component of appraisals, it has now become imperative to publish research work in high impact factor journals. Not every person has the innate talent to write, but this can be developed and sharpened through active engagement and expert guidance. Keeping this in mind, Christ Institute of Management, Delhi-NCR, is organizing a one-week research paper writing workshop to help faculty enhance their publication in international peer-reviewed journals. The core objective of this workshop is to help explore the underlying layers in a great research paper and outline the pleasures and pitfalls of writing it. With the help of some characteristic examples and activities, the workshop will serve as a practical guide to the art of writing papers.

The workshop is designed to encompass components of a research paper, including writing an introduction, literature review, choosing the appropriate research methodology, data collection and analysis ending with the writing of interpretation and conclusion of the report. The delegates would be divided into teams comprising of 3-4 members as per their expertise. Each team will be mentored by an expert of his/her area. By the end of this one-week workshop, each delegate would leave with a ready to be published quality research paper and equipped with the requisite skills to write many more individually.

Objective

The objective of the workshop is to strengthen the skills and knowledge of PhD Scholars/Faculty Members/Researchers in publishing scientific research findings in high impact factor journals.
