Summary

Humble professor who aspires to inspire in all walks of life.

Being a teacher I have always been under public scrutiny. My milieu has bestowed me with diverse epithets - from humble teacher to multitasker, from a mentor to an influencer and from an individual to an inspiration. I am glad that I didn't impart just "education" but also the lessons as to how to use it for the better.

What inspires me and how to keep inspiring:

A dream and the discipline to achieve it inspires my life like nothing else. It is my conviction that true inspiration arises out of a desire to achieve something. Inspiration doesn't transpire from the words we say but the way we live.

Be inspired and keep inspiring
