International Webinar on 'Inclusion of Students with Specific Learning Disabilities'

On Saturday, 30 October 2021 the School of Education (SoE) hosted an International Webinar on 'Inclusion of Students with Specific Learning Disabilities' for students of the Postgraduate Diploma in International Education (PGDIE), the third semester of Bachelor of Education (B.Ed), PhD scholars, teachers, counsellors and special educators. The event was graced by the presence of the Dean of Social Sciences, Dr Tony Sam George and Director of the School of Education, Rev Fr (Dr) Peter. The resource persons for the four sessions of the webinar were Dr Giselle Lobo, Mrs Manjushree Patil, Ms Jayathi Narayan and Mr Vijay Naresh. The session commenced with a pre-test conducted for the participants to get an idea of their previous knowledge about Inclusive Education.

Session 1 (9 am – 11 am)

Dr Giselle Lobo began the session on Universal Design for Learning, Dr Lobo focused on multiple means of representation, engagement and expression.

Session 2 (11.10 am – 1 pm)

During the second session, Mrs Manjushree Patil educated the audience on the Inclusion of Learners with Specific Learning Disability. It focused on the identification of signs and symptoms of learners with a learning disability, with an emphasis on dyslexia, their strengths and how to accommodate them using various inclusive classroom strategies.

Session 3 (2 pm – 4 pm)

Ms Jayathi Narayan, the third speaker of the day, introduced the audience to Teaching Strategies for Students with a Specific Learning Disability. The session highlighted the variant methods for curricular adaptation which inculcates accommodation and modification of students.

Mr Vijay Naresh continued the session on the concept of 'Winning with Different Abilities'. Mr Naresh shared his experiences of winning through life's challenges with dyslexia. He also displayed some of his artwork to the audience.

Each session ended with a test that aided the audience in a recapitulation of their learning. Maria Johnson, a student of the third semester B.Ed presented a report of all the sessions that took place and delivered the vote of thanks on behalf of the SoE and the attendees.
