Webinar on

'Publishing with Oxford'

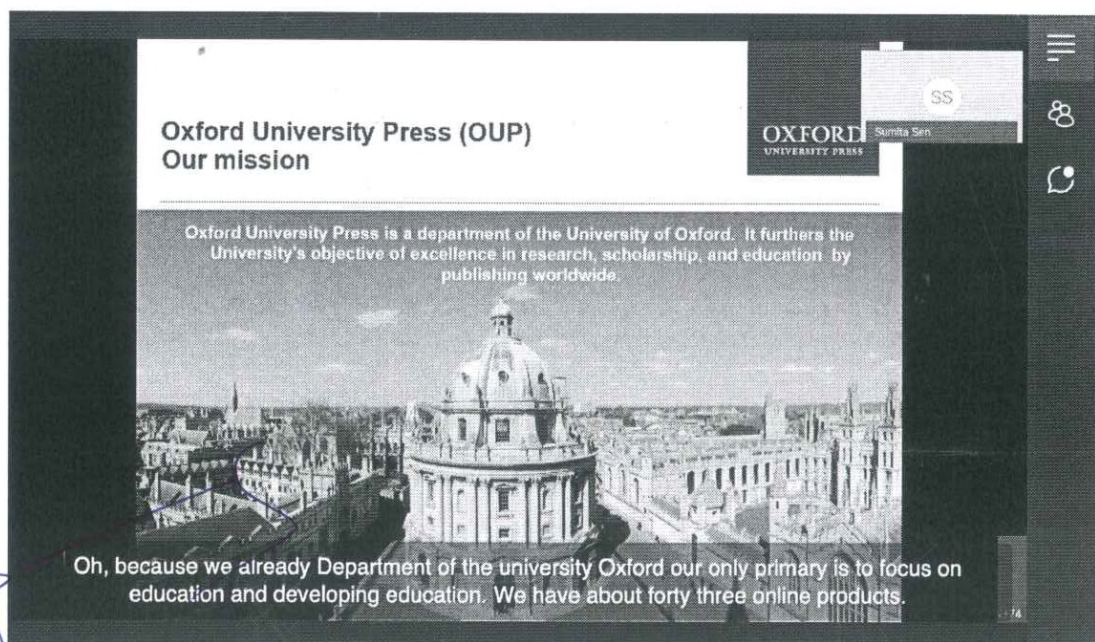

Date 27/07/2020 at 3.00 PM

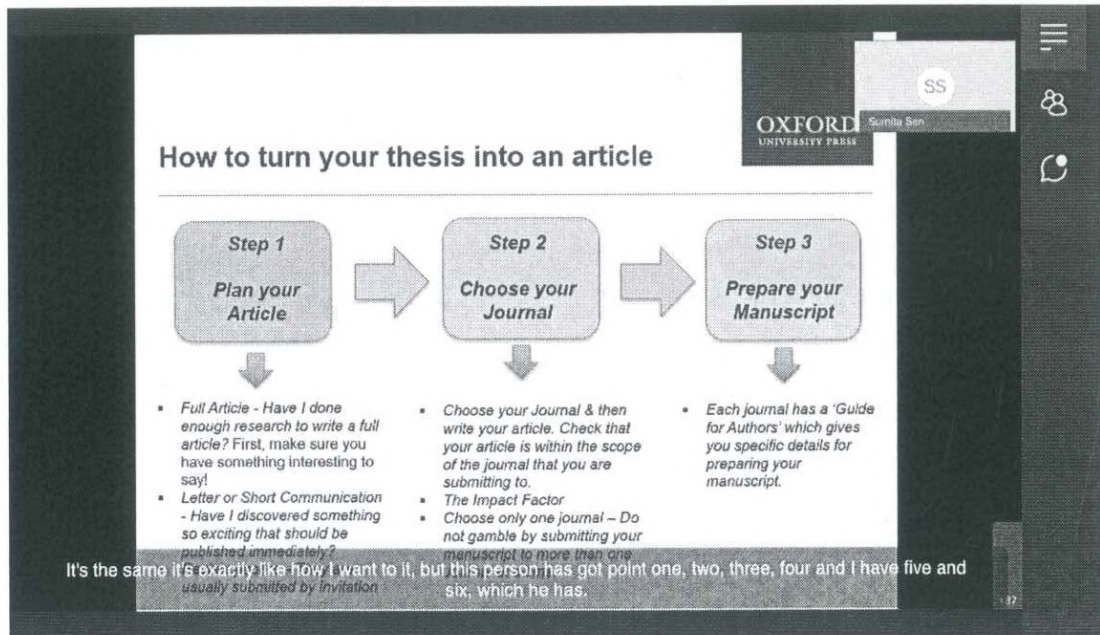

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell, School of Law, organised a webinar on - 'Publishing with Oxford' for the Faculty and research scholars of the School of Law and the Department of Sociology and Social Work. Student's representatives were also invited to the session. The session was conducted online on Webex platform.

The trainers for the session were -

1. Ms Sumita Sen - Regional Training & Implementation Manager for South Asia & South East Asia who has about 18 years of experience in training small and large groups across diverse industries
2. Mr Joyanta Guha Zonal Manager Journals, Online Products for East and South India including Bangladesh.

The session was conducted with the following learning outcomes in mind-

1. This session will help us determine whether we are ready to publish our work,
2. Discuss the manuscript forms available, and
3. Highlight points to consider when choosing the right journal for your research.
4. At the end of the session we will have an understanding of the publishing process and the steps to follow when preparing to publish.

Hence the session was designed towards covering the following elements -

- How to turn your thesis into an article
- Differences between a thesis and an article
- How to write a manuscript
- Types of journal manuscripts
- How to select which journal you want to write for
- How do you upload a manuscript on the OUP platform – Article submission process
- The journal publishing cycle
- What is Open Access – Kinds of Open Access

92 participants attended the session. They were faculty members from School of Law and Department of Sociology and Social Work, CHRIST University. Research scholars of both the departments and the student council members also attended the session.

From the feedback received -

The session was well appreciated by the participants. They found value primarily in how to select the journal one wants to write for. They also appreciated the efforts of the presenter to make a clear and concise description of how to convert thesis into an article and note the difference between thesis and an article. Participants also appreciated the information about the style of writing the abstract and its contents.

Everyone was delighted to know about the reading suggested - The art and science of writing a publishable article.

Dr Jayadevan Nair made the concluding remarks and rendered the vote of thanks.
