“FUNDAMENTALS OF LEGAL RESEARCH”

PROF. (DR.) VANDANA MAHALWAR

10TH SEPTEMBER, 2021

JOURNAL AND PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

ABOUT THE JOURNAL AND PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

The Journal and Publications Committee is formed to inculcate among the student a habit of doing research on various socio-legal issues in our country. The society will guide the students in paper publications and presentations on national and international forums. The society will conduct several workshops, seminars, conferences on legal research, paper publications and citation formats in this academic year of 2021-22. Research is an important part of the curriculum and it helps the students to develop a critical bend of mind.

CONCEPT NOTE ON THE TRAINING WORKSHOP

"Research is something that everyone can do, and everyone ought to do. It is simply collecting information and thinking systematically about it."

- Raewyn Connell

It is the constant endeavor of the Journal and Publications Committee, to help the students to develop the skills of doing quality research. The training workshop was organized by the committee to achieve this object by inviting an eminent personality in this area Dr. Vandana Mahalwar. The workshop has the aim of educating the students about the various aspects of legal research including research design, hypothesis, sampling and citations. Research is simply the process of arriving as dependable solution to a problem through the planned and systematic collection, analysis and interpretation of data. Research is the most important process for advancing knowledge for promoting progress and to enable man to relate more effectively to his environment to accomplish his purpose and to resolve his conflicts. Although it is not the only way, it is one of the more effective ways of solving scientific and socio-legal issues, this will be the central point of discussion in this workshop

THEME

The theme for the workshop was 'FUNDAMENTALS OF LEGAL RESEARCH'. The Lecture was delivered by our guest Prof. (Dr.) Vandana Mahalwar, Assistant Professor, Campus Law Centre, Delhi University. She discussed on the crucial aspects of the legal research including the common mistakes researchers make while conducting their research. Prof. Vandana discussion centered around the concept that in its broadest sense, legal research includes each step of a course of action that begins with an analysis of the facts of a problem and concludes with the application and communication of the results of the investigation

The targeted audience for the event was 1st, 2nd and 3rd year LLB students and all LLM students of the School of Law, CHRIST (Deemed to be University). The guest lecture was conducted virtually through Cisco WebEx on 10th September 2021 (Friday) from 2.00 pm to 3:30 pm. The event saw the participation of about 200+ students and faculty members.

THE AIM OF THE GUEST LECTURE

- 1) To encourage student to pursue quality research in various socio-legal issues around the world.
- 2) To expand the knowledge base of the students so that they gain a deeper understanding of the intricacies of research.
- 3) To encourage curiosity amongst the students to create new ideas and opinions in diverse fields.
- 4) To keep the students up to date about the changes that have happened recently in the field of legal research.
- 5)

INTRODUCTION OF THE TOPIC

BY PROF. ARUNIMA SHASTRI, CO-CONVENOR

JOURNAL AND PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE

Transcript

"A very warm welcome to our esteemed guest Prof. (Dr.) Vandana Mahalwar, our Head of Department Dr. Ramesh Singh, Faculty members and dear students. I'm Arunima Shastri, Convenor of Journal and Publications Committee and I'm here to introduce the topic for today's training workshop. Legal research has been defined as a process of finding the law that governs an activity and materials that explain or analyze that law. Legal research includes various processes ranging from information gathering to analyzing the facts of a problem and communicating the investigation results. Meaning of Legal Research Research implies scientific and purposive investigation or inquiry of a problem or issue of any discipline. Likewise, legal research is a scientific investigation into a legal issue or problem and the process of gathering evidence or information for ascertaining an assumption or verifying some hypotheses. Doing research aims to add new knowledge to the existing body of knowledge in an area of interest. Today we are very fortunate to have with us Prof. (Dr.) Vandana Mahalwar to discuss on this pertinent topic about legal research and its various dimensions. So without much further ado I would like to invite her to start the workshop and enlighten us all with her words of wisdom.
